

NEW YORK – March 5, 2018 – Aspen REIT Withdraws its Common Stock From Listing on the NYSE American – Aspen REIT, Inc. (“Aspen REIT”) has issued a notice to the NYSE American LLC (the “NYSE American”) of Aspen REIT’s determination to withdraw its common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the “Common Stock”), from listing and/or registration on the NYSE American. The stated basis for withdrawal of its Common Stock from listing are that (1) on February 21, 2018, Aspen REIT announced its decision to postpone its initial public offering in order to make certain modifications to the structure of the offering, and (2) in order to continue the offering with the modified structure, Aspen REIT has been asked to withdraw its common stock from listing with the NYSE American.

Aspen REIT has not arranged for listing and/or registration on another national securities exchange or for quotation of its Common Stock in a quotation medium as defined by applicable regulations.

Stephane De Baets, Chief Executive Officer, President and Chairman of Aspen REIT commented that Aspen REIT is modifying its offering process in order to complete its initial public offering and NYSE American listing as soon as possible.

About Aspen REIT

Aspen REIT, Inc. intends to own the St. Regis Aspen Resort, a full-service, 179-room luxury hotel with four onsite food and beverage outlets and 29,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor conference and banquet venues with views of the Rocky Mountains. The St. Regis Aspen is managed by a subsidiary of Marriott International Inc. The St. Regis Aspen is located in the famous resort town of Aspen, Colorado, home of year-round events such as The World Cup ski races, The ESPN Winter X Games, The Food & Wine Classic, and The Aspen Music Festival. Aspen REIT intends to be the first single-asset REIT to list on a national exchange and is externally managed by a majority-owned subsidiary of Elevated Returns LLC, a New York-based real estate asset management and advisory firm.
